Sir:

COMMENTS ON STATEMENT OF REASON FOR ALLOWANCE

In the above-referenced case, the Examiner sets forth a Statement of Reasons for Allowance and refers to the Response of October 31, 2003 and the amendments therein. The reasons set forth by the Examiner refer to only some of the features and elements in the independent claims, as amended and are not the only reasons the claims are allowable. Those independent claims may include additional patentable claim elements or combinations of elements as well which are not mentioned by the Examiner, and may make the claims allowable over the cited art.

Furthermore, the Examiner does not specifically note the pending dependent claims. Each of the dependent claims recites additional patentable features, or combinations of features, not mentioned by the Examiner which define over the cited prior art. Accordingly, each of those dependent claims is believed to be allowable based upon its base independent claim and also upon other features recited in those various dependent claims that are not discussed herein. Therefore, the claims are allowable for reasons beyond those stated in the Reasons for Allowance.

Applicant knows of no fees due herein with this submission. However, if any charges or credits are necessary, please apply them to Deposit Account 23-3000.

Respectfully submitted,

WOOD, HERRON & EVANS, L.L.P.
